

Join us for an Exciting Leadership Seminar

Jump on Board for the Arts

Special Board Governance Seminar for Attorneys Interested in Non-Profit Boards & Leadership

The New York Times said when it comes to the arts Miami is the NEW New York! With over 1,000 arts organizations, Miami-Dade has one of the most exciting cultural communities in the U.S. The arts have an economic impact of almost one billion dollars and attract more people than sports!

As an attorney you can play a leading role...

Join us for a rewarding seminar to learn more about joining an arts board?

Benefits of joining an arts board

Business development opportunities for board members

Work directly with artists and arts executives

Meaningful behind the scenes involvement

Responsibilities of board members

Leadership traits of successful boards

Checklist: what to ask before joining

3 CLE credits applied for

Faculty

Laura Bruney, Arts & Business Council • David Da Silva Cornell, Boyd & Jenerette, P.A.

Jaret Davis, Greenberg Traurig, P.A. • Marlon Hill, Delancy Hill

Faith Mesnekoff, Faith Mesnekoff, P.A. • Steven M. Weinger, Kurzban Kurzban & Weinger, P.A.

Facilitator: Steve Eisenberg, Lipscomb Eisenberg & Baker P.L. Invited faculty, subject to change

December 9, 2011 8:30 Breakfast and Networking • 9:00 to noon Seminar

Greenberg Traurig 333 SE 2nd Avenue, Suite 4400 , Downtown Miami

For information call 305-579-5733 ext. 2264 Advance reservations are required as limited seating is available.

Cost: There is NO REGISTRATION FEE for attorneys that agree to accept at least one pro bono case from Put Something Back. If you cannot accept a case the cost is $80 made payable to Legal Aid.

Name _____ Bar Number _____

Firm/Company _____

Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

E-Mail _____ Telephone _____

Return form Fax: 305-372-7693 or Mail: Karen Ladis, Esq., Put Something Back, 123 NW 1st Ave., Miami, FL 33128

